

The 6th Athens Open Air Film Festival goes to Aegina Island!

«Amadeus» (1984)

Tuesday, August 30th

Cine Anesis, Aiakou & Aiados Street, Aegina Island

Official first Athens Open Air Film Festival screening in the islands under the auspices and the support of the GNTO and the REGION OF ATTICA!

The Athens Open Air Film Festival performs a special summer send-off and fixes the appetite for our next open air festival by accomplishing the ambitious initiative of expanding its events and traveling to the islands in order to offer entertainment, cinematic getaway and cultural tourism, in the same way we have succeeded in doing it in the city of Athens for six years now.

Therefore, on August 30th, the 6th Athens Open Air Film Festival makes its way to the Argo-Saronic Sea and specifically in the ever charming cosmopolitan and authentically beautiful island of Aegina, calling all cinema fans and island visitors to a unique screening.

With us will be the beer Fischer, our loyal companion this year too, which will make sure to freshen the audience before the screening.

The 8 Oscar Award-winning masterpiece of Milos Forman on Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, a film that exceeded the limits of musical biography, will be screened in the magical Cine Anesis space and for the first time after three decades in our country, on the silver screen.

There has never been before in the history of cinema a biography of a famous man similar to Milos Forman's award-winning masterpiece. Having won 8 Oscars «Amadeus» combines fictional elements with verified historical details and mere speculations in order to tell the story of admiration and hate that is developed among Antonio Salieri, a second-grade composer and conductor of the imperial Court and the diabolically talented young Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, over the last ten years of the top musician's life.

Between the two men and against the background of a masterfully depicted 18th century Vienna, the film develops a whole reflection on the complex and often catastrophic procedure of artistic creation and the collision of genius with mediocrity, offering a high quality film spectacle which totally respects the large musical heritage that Mozart left, while simultaneously knitting an exciting narrative around the audience.

Written by Peter Shaffer, who had previously achieved great theatrical success with this particular play, «Amadeus» remains an aristocratic and generous drama which doesn't remind us at all of the predictable and usually conventional biographies of this genre. On the contrary, it is filled with energy, cleverness and dramaturgical weight, treating its famous heroes as multidimensional gears of the complicated and merciless mechanism that we call human state and offering a tragedy of Shakespearean tones and great indulgence.

Director: Milos Forman

Starring: F. Murray Abraham, Tom Hulce, Elizabeth Berridge

Duration: 160'

In collaboration with:

The screenings of the 6th Athens Open Air Film Festival are realized with the kind support of the GNTO & www.visitgreece.gr. They are co-organized with the City of Athens Cultural, Sport and Youth Organization and they are sponsored by the beer Fischer.

For further information and the detailed program of the 6th Athens Open Air Film Festival, visit our site www.cinemag.gr and our pages on facebook / twitter / instagram.

Golden prize Tourism Awards 2015 in the category Cultural Tourism.

